NEWS OF MILTON

HOW PROHIBITION MADE A DEAD TOWN OF MILTON.

Seventeen Years Without a Saloon and Has Almost No Use for a Calaboose—Has Bought and Paid for Her Light and Water System, and Secured a Discount on Her Bonds. All Without License Money—splendid Record for Improvements and General Progress.

Milton, Dec. 18.—Talk about prohibition and prohibition, and making a dead town, just read what Milton has done and is doing:

For 17 years Milton has been without a saloon, and during the past three years she has bought and paid for her own electric light plant and city water works, and reduced the tax on city bonds from eight to six per cent, without the help of saloons. The "city jail" has been occupied but twice within the past year; once by a pickpocket, and once with 13 young bloods, who tried to have things their own way Halloween night.

Besides this, the citizens have made nearly $100,000 in improvements in the way of business houses and city residences, and the prospects bid fair for several more of each next summer. At the present time there isn't an empty house in town of either kind and several business houses and a score of residences could be rented inside of a month.

Over 800,000 bushels of wheat were stored in her mills, and nearly $80,000 worth of fruit was shipped from the three packing houses this season, besides the amount that was peddled and hauled to Walla Walla, which is estimated at from $25,000 to $40,000. The fruit season being over, she and her sister town, Freewater, are raising and shipping rock at the rate of 25 cents a yard to Walla Walla, or 450 yards a day.

The new electric plant, which will be in operation by the first of the year, will cost nearly $25,000, and belongs to the city. Besides this, we find the following new residences and their cost: W. H. Gray, $1200; Henry Lloyd, $900; Emmitt Vinson, $500; W. S. Mayberry, $800; Sam Thomas, $1200; D. J. Kirk, $550; H. M. Tinker, $500; F. B. Pennock, $500; William Nichols, $550; C. F. Demaris, residence and barn, $2000; Charles Walters, $500; P. M. Walker, $500; Van Brankin, $500; Edna Williams, $750; W. G. Waggoner, $700; W. A. McGhee, $450; Charles Ludje, $700; J. M. Muir, $450; Bert McKibbit barn, $400. Besides this, several good improvements in the way of additions: J. B. Frazier, $200 to barn; F. E. Wilcox, $1200 addition to house; William Anderson, $300, and Mrs. Black, $250 to houses.

Tassie Stewart has the foundation for a $2000 residence, and William Anderson for a $1000 one to be built in the spring.

Hot Lunch at Normal.

An innovation has been introduced during the past week in the training department of the state normal school. Hot food is provided each room for those children who, living at a distance, bring their lunches. On Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays hot soup—beef, tomato, vegetable or the like—and crackers are served, and on Tuesdays and Thursdays hot cocoa or chocolate. This work is under the management of the supervisors of the training school and is in direct charge of practice teachers, who receive credit for it as they do for any other work done satisfactorily. This work will be continued during cold weather. —Cheney Free Press.

Daft Over a Widow.

James Eustler, a well known old-time resident of this section, attempted suicide this morning at 2 o'clock at his father's residence in northeastern Moscow. A physician believes he will not survive over 48 hours. The ball entered the left breast, passed very near the heart and lodged in the back within two inches of the surface, where it was cut out by Dr. Clark. Eustler stood the operation without an anesthetic. Eustler is about 35 years old and one of the proprietors of the Idaho saloon.

It is said Eustler was despondent over a love affair with Mrs. Scooby, who conducts the Headlight restaurant. —Spokesman-Review.

Fifty Burglaries in 19 Days.

Portland, Dec. 19.—Since December 1 about 50 burglaries have been reported to the police. The number of thieves compared with the number of cases in which nothing whatever has been accomplished forms a record which Chief Hunt is not likely to produce in support of his contention that his "system" is excellent.

Really good work has been done in several instances, but such poor performances have been by detectives pursuing their own devices. A great deal has been accomplished by patrolmen, but the brunt of thief-catching necessarily has fallen on the detective branch of the department.
